MILK - NATURE'S CALMING REMEDY.

Remember when you were a child and had trouble sleeping? You could always count on your mom or dad to bring you a soothing cup of warm milk. Even the very youngest are treated to this most natural way of being lulled to sleep by the warmth of mother's milk. Nature has always provided the most perfect remedy for relaxing and calming us.

As adults we are subjected to enormous demands and stress. How to balance work and family. How to get ahead without comprising your quality of life. Whether it's time to relax and get a good night's sleep, or you need to take the edge off a particularly stressful day, sometimes a little help would be a welcome relief.

pnt200™ – NATURE'S TRANQUIL PEPTIDE.

Serenity. Tranquility. Calmness. Peace. These are all states of being one strives to achieve. Here's how we can help. pnt200™ is a naturally sourced bioactive milk peptide in capsule form, which acts as a sleep aid when taken before bedtime. How does it do this? By relieving stress and the symptoms of anxiety that are standing between you and a truly restful night. pnt200™ also works the day shift by helping to reduce nervousness due to common everyday overwork and fatigue.

JUST THE FACTS.

Above all else remember this: pnt200™ is naturally sourced. It is derived from milk, nature's most perfect food. It contains no additives, and unlike other products on the market, it is not a drug.

Now that's important. What does it mean for you? It means that there are no side effects. It means that pnt200™ is not habit forming.

STANDS OUT IN THE CROWD.

pnt200™ is unique. With a patent protecting its use, there is nothing like it currently available on the market. Developed in France, it is backed by ten years of clinically proven research.

The milk from which pnt200™ is made comes from dairy herds in France and Switzerland that are pesticide free, antibiotic free, and free of growth hormones.

THE BOTTOM LINE.

When you can't sleep, all you can think about is getting to sleep. It sometimes takes more than counting sheep. If you seek relief from occasional sleeplessness or nervous irritability and stress during the day, pnt200™ is the answer. Naturally.
